EW YORK, May 11 .- In one of the wildest games ever played in American League park, Detroit today defeated New York, 9 to 5. After Quinn and Street had been After Quinn and Street had been put out of the game, pop bottles and glasses were thrown at Umpire O'Lough-lin. Special policemen escorted the umpire out of the grounds after the game, while bottles and other missiles were hurled at him. Ford was taken out of the box in the seventh, with the visitors leading 2 to 1, two on bases, two out, and with one strike on Crawford. Yaughn then gave passes to Crawford, Delehanty, Moriarity and Buaman, throwing thirteen balls before putting over a strike. Vaughn's passes forced in three runs. Quinn went in and the first ball he pitched was a wild pitch, giving Detroit five runs for the inning and the game. Score. Score: R. H. E. III 13 5 4 4 York 2 2 4 New York

Washington Beats Cleveland. By International News Service.

By International News Service.

WASHINGTON, May 11.—Washington got to Mitchell for six runs in the fourth liming and cinched the game, which the Senators won by 8 to 0. In the fourth round Mitchell passed two men, hit another and made a bad throw to second. This, with three hits and two passed bails, did the business. James, who succeeded Mitchell, was hit freely. Johnson allowed but two hits and struck out eleven men. Both teams fielded well.

New York Defeats Chicago. By International News Service.

CHICAGO. May 11.—Lou Richie wasn't half as puzzilng today to the Glants as he was last year and was yanked in favor of King Cole, who got a terrific beating in the eighth, Larry Doyle adding insult to injury by popping a homer over the head of Frank Schulte. Score, 10 to 3 Marquard pitched a swell game for the visitors up to the eighth. Then, with a ten-run lead, he let up and allowed the Cubs to have some fun.

dered McConnell to the mound.

This was Young "Mack's" first appearance in the real doings and his term of usefulness was brief. Three betsmen faced him and three safe blows were the result. Then came a hurry-up call for Andy Jensen. The Peach City hurler also had some difficulty in stemming the tide of hits and runs, three safeties in the eighth netting the Blanks a pair of counters.

Working like a real big leaguer, Eddie Quick had the old swastika sign on the Macks throughout almost every innins, although he showed signs of slowing up in the sixth. By passing a couple and allowing a quarter of safe blows. Ogden managed to retain his place until the final round. Neither pitching department was accorded anything like the support needed, the Ogden contingent being especially forsaken by the men behind. The the eighth netting the Blanks a pair of counters.
